Crafted by renowned Zuni artist Larry Loretto, this striking men's cuff bracelet showcases a flawless row of channel inlay using top-grade Sleeping Beauty Turquoise, set in solid, heavy sterling silver. The vibrant turquoise is beautifully framed by Loretto's signature deep-cut, alternating zig-zag design—an artistic detail that reflects his mastery of modern Southwest silverwork.

Larry Loretto is celebrated for his bold, clean-lined sterling silver bracelets, and this piece is a testament to his craftsmanship and design expertise. Hallmarked "Sterling" and "Loretto," this collector-quality bracelet is both a sophisticated statement piece and a meaningful work of wearable art.

Please note: This bracelet is not adjustable. Be sure to measure your wrist and include the size in the notes at checkout to ensure a proper fit.
